Supporting Documentation

1. State the magazine's vision or mandate (250 words or less):

2. Briefly describe the magazine's target audience (250 words or less):

3. Give a brief outline of the editor's duties at the magazine:

4. On a separate sheet, summarize (in 750 words or less) the nominee's achievements and explain why the nominee deserves the award. Refer to the Award Criteria section of the Guidelines when writing this piece, noting special qualities and achievements such as examples of resourcefulness and leadership.

5. Provide up to two letters of support. They should come from relevant magazine stakeholders (e.g., publisher, reader, writer, art director, intern, other colleagues) who can speak to the editor's qualities of leadership, editing skill, resourcefulness and creativity. Please refer to the Award Criteria section of the Guidelines.

6. If desired, submissions may also include other documents to support the nomination (e.g. testimonials, media clippings and personal references). Please refer to the Award Criteria in selecting only relevant materials; quantity does not a strong submission make.

7. Attach two different issues (three copies each) of the magazines that best demonstrate the editor's work.

Please submit entries on or before February 8, 2008, to:
