About techlifetoday

Techlifetoday is the Northern Alberta Institute of Technology's online magazine. We publish timely news about the polytechnic, stories about the impact of our community, and useful insight and advice from our experts. Learn something new every day.

Have an idea for a story?

Know of an interesting NAIT grad with a story that should be told? Interested in a how-to topic that you think one of our experts could explain? If you have an idea for a story with a connection to the polytechnic, we'd like to hear from you.
